

KLUNK NAMES CHAIRMEN FOR REGISTRATION

Fred G. Klunk, chairman of the Adams County Democratic Committee, today named Ernest E. Unger of Biglerville, chairman of the 1960 registration drive.

At the same time, he announced the appointment of M. Jean Miller, R. 5, and Emory L. Hammer of 221 Lincolnway West, New Oxford, as co-chairmen. The current registration ends March 7.

In making the appointments, Klunk said that "an aggressive grass-roots campaign is being conducted in Adams County to step up voter registration to prepare the party for a top-level performance at the polls in the vital 1960 election."

"Capable Leaders"

He described the new registration chairmen as "capable leaders who are putting drive and energy behind the county-wide registration campaign."

"Unger is well qualified to direct this drive. I am certain he will give us an all-out, doorbell-ringing campaign to line up new Democratic registrations," the county chairman said.

Miss Miller will help to stress the key to success which the women of Pennsylvania hold in this registration drive," he said. "Of an estimated 1,853,000 persons, 21 and over, who are not registered to vote in Pennsylvania, over a million are women who are failing to exercise their rights and duties as full-time citizens."

BENEFICIARY IN STEWART WILL

Mrs. Janet Russell McPherson, wife of Interstate Commerce Commissioner Donald P. McPherson of Gettysburg and Washington, is named as one of the beneficiaries in the will of Dr. Helen Montgomery Stewart of Chambersburg, who died at her home there December 5. The Chambersburg Hospital ultimately will be the principal beneficiary.

Dr. Stewart's will, which has been probated in the Franklin County courts, at Chambersburg, provides that her estate be set up as a permanent trust fund. Initially, the income of the fund was to be paid to two sisters, but only one, Miss Janet H. Stewart, survives.

Upon the death of the last sister, up to $5,000 is to be taken from the fund to provide a memorial window for the Falling Spring Presbyterian Church in memory of Dr. Stewart's parents, the late Justice John Stewart of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and Mrs. Stewart.

The income of the remaining trust is then to go to Mrs. McPherson, and Margaret R. Prouty, Northboro, Mass., during their lifetime. Upon their death, five-sixths of the income of the trust fund is to be paid to the Chambersburg Hospital for use in the surgical department and laboratory. The remaining one-sixth of the trust fund's income will go to the Falling Spring Presbyterian Church at Chambersburg.

Mr. McPherson and A. W. Evans, vice president of the Valley National Bank at Chambersburg, are executors of the will which Dr. Stewart executed on April 12, 1956.

For probate purposes the estate was valued at "over $10,000" in personal property and "$10,000 and upward" in real estate.

STRAUSBAUGH CIVIL SUITS RETURNED HERE

The suits brought as the result of the death of Dwight Strausbaugh near Cashtown in an auto-truck accident are coming back to Adams County court for determination of damages in connection with the wreckage of the auto and truck involved.

The case had started in Middle District Court of Pennsylvania because of the amount sought in damages for the "wrongful death and personal injury" and because some of the persons involved were Adams countians and others were from Washington, D. C.

Trial of the case began in Middle District Court last October, but a settlement was reached in a "wrongful death" action and in a personal injury action while the trial was being heard.

Less Involved Now

The Gettysburg National Bank as executor for the estate of Dwight Strausbaugh had brought the "wrongful death" action against Cleveland L. Flesham, driver of the truck, and Dixie Plywood Co., owners of the truck, both of Washington D. C. Flesham (Continued On Page 4)

Eisenhower Assures Nation That United States Is "Strongest Power On Earth" In Address To More Than 100,000 Republicans

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Exuberant Republicans heard President Eisenhower's assurance Wednesday night that his administration is making the United States the "strongest power on earth" in the military and economic fields.

From Vice President Richard M. Nixon came a clear message that while he would be happy to inherit Eisenhower's peace and prosperity laurels, he will not be content merely to stand on them as the new Republican presidential nominee.

In Washington, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York cautioned GOP colleagues they can't coast on Eisenhower's personal triumphs because he said the voters will want to know in November "what happens next?"

"Rousing Night"

It was a rousing night for the Grand Old Party. More than 100,000 persons, paying from $25 to $100 a plate, gathered in 83 cities in 43 states for a closed circuit television "Dinner with Ike."

Like Eisenhower and Nixon, Cabinet members and others high in Republican circles deserted Washington to address the dinners individually.

There was no public telecast, but those attending the dinners

POLICE WARN OF DOG LAW

Burgess Wilbur Plank and borough police today warned dog owners that an ordinance prohibits dogs to run at large in town. They said "numerous complaints" from all sections of town, has led to the reminder that the ordinance exists and will be enforced.

Passed in 1955 by borough council, the law provides that "it shall be unlawful for the owner of any dog to permit such dog to run at large upon the streets and highways of the borough of Gettysburg and it is unlawful for any person who has been given the care and custody of any dog by its owner to permit the dog to run at large."

The ordinance provides that "proof at the trial that a dog has been seen running upon the streets and highways of the borough of Gettysburg shall be deemed to be and shall constitute proof that such running at large was permitted by the owner or by the caretaker thereof."

A fine of up to $25 or up to 10 days in jail is provided in the ordinance for those found guilty of permitting dogs to run at large.

Police Help To Locate Manuscript

The "commander of Gettysburg Police" helped an Italian professor get his manuscript back.

The local police received a letter from Prof. Simone Pasquale, Genoa, Italy, stating that he had given a book he had written to Dr. Robert Bloom a number of years ago, and now could not recall Dr. Bloom's address and would the "commander of Gettysburg Police help locate him."

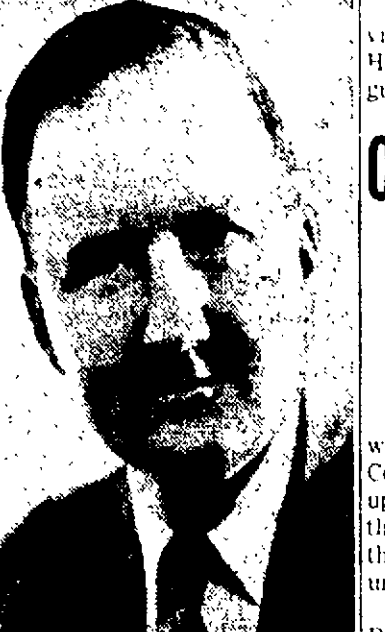

Dr. Bloom was glad to hear from the "commander of police" because he still had the manuscript of Professor Pasquale's book and had no idea where Pasquale was.

As a result the "commander" and Bloom sent the manuscript to Italy.

Algeria's General Strike Eases; Situation Tense; Utilities Start To Open

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP) — Rebellious Frenchmen today eased a general strike which has paralyzed this city since their uprising against President Charles de Gaulle's self-determination policy for Algeria.

Food supplies began moving in the capital and utilities began functioning in response to sympathetic appeals to the barricaded insurgents by De Gaulle's representatives.

The army announced that a state of siege and martial law remains in effect in the tense capital.

But authorities lifted censorship without explanation to let correspondents tell the full story of the revolt since it broke five days ago. Armed insurgents still clung to the barricades. They were firmly in control of an area in the heart of the city. Paratroopers ringed the insurgent encampment but made no move to invade.

"Keep Algeria French"

Insurgent leaders called on the population to relax the general strike in answer to appeals from De Gaulle's delegate-general to Algeria, Paul Delouvrier and Gen. Maurice Challe, commander in chief of French forces in Algeria.

Challe stressed in his appeal that the French army was fighting to keep Algeria French — a declaration that the rebels have been demanding from De Gaulle.

The general strike paralyzed most Algerian cities since the uprising.

Restlessness of the Moslems created a danger of new violence. Some Moslems showed a back-to-work urge.

Street Clashes

Street clashes broke out Wednesday in Mostaganem, a Mediterranean port of 50,000 about 200 miles west of Algiers. French soldiers fired shots to disperse a demonstration by a crowd—mostly Moslems—marching on City Hall demanding work and shouting "Long live De Gaulle." There were reports that 20 Moslems were injured, but none by gunfire. (Continued On Page 2)

C-D ALERTED BY FOG AND BIG AIRPLANE

The possibility that a big plane was in trouble in fog over Adams County this morning was cleared up by Civil Defense authorities in the course of an emergency alert that had fire and auxiliary police units standing by.

Adams County's Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver gave this sequence of events that began at 9:20 a.m. when Mrs. J. R. Clark, Gettysburg R. 4, reported that a big plane was circling in the fog over her home in Straban Twp., north of Hunterstown.

The Civil Defense staff member who received the call at the engine house here notified Director Weaver who got in touch with state police and Weaver's deputy, C. A. Ledard, R. 4.

C-D Functioned Smoothly

Ledard took his pack radio to Schriver's Corner and kept C-D headquarters here informed on the plane's movements. State police radios also reported in on the plane that circled out of sight in the fog. Firemen and auxiliary police were alerted and Weaver called Olmsted Air Air Base, near Harrisburg, to report the plane.

There he learned that a plane was under orders to circle while waiting for landing conditions to improve at the Harrisburg-York Airport as long as its fuel held out.

Assuming that the plane being heard here was the one referred to at Olmsted, the alert was cancelled at 9:45 a.m.

Waver said it was the first actual alert for the new setup and that all communication lines functioned smoothly.

FIND ELDERLY FRANKLIN TWP. MAN DEAD BY BURNING HOME

A 78-year-old Franklin Twp. resident died Wednesday afternoon as he sought to rescue possessions from his flame-swept home along the "new road."

Cashtown firemen, called to the scene at 3:30 p.m. through the "quick call" radio system of the county, found William E. Bingaman lying about 40 yards from his home on Orrtanna R. 1.

Near him were some cereal, a small money container, some clothes and nearer the house were and other articles that the elderly man had apparently brought out of the house after it had caught fire.

Blame Asphyxiation

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said that while the elderly laborer had been burned about the legs, death was apparently caused by asphyxiation, from breathing in the fumes and flames as he dashed time and again into the blazing dwelling.

He apparently had been in at least fair health. A huckster who had seen Bingaman on Friday told Cashtown Fire Chief Owen Bucher that a small pile of stove wood, neatly cut and stacked near the house, had apparently been cut since Friday.

Bingaman, according to Cashtown Chief Bucher, had resided on the "new road" — so called although it is over a century old — atop a mountain to the west of Shelly's round barn. The road runs from there to St. Ignatius Loyola Church in Buchanan Valley. Bucher said Bingaman was believed a native of Franklin County, but had resided in his two-room frame home on the mountain for the last 50 years and supported himself over the years by working in sawmills, timbering and farm work.

House Destroyed

Damage to the house, which was completely burned, was estimated at $1,500. Chief Bucher said Bingaman had always kept his house neat and in good repair.

Bucher said he believes that fire started from a wood stove. There was no electrical connections to the house.

The body was released by the coroner to the Peters Funeral Home. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Lucretia Waganan, South Mountain, and a brother, Robert, Lorraine, Ohio.

The alarm marked the first use of the "quick call" radio system of the county for a fire call. Chief Bucher said it worked "exceedingly well." When the alarm was phoned by neighbors to the central radio station at the engine house here, a button was pushed sounding the siren at the Cashtown fire house by radio impulse. When the Cashtown firemen arrived at their engine house and turned on the radio receivers in their fire trucks the operator at the central station here informed the firemen of the location of the fire.

The Gettysburg ambulance was called to the scene when Bingaman's body was found, in the event that there still might be life, but he was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

He was a son of the late James and Mary C. (Bigman) Bingaman.

Graveside services Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at Flohr's Cemetery with the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt officiating. A viewing will be held at the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., from 9 a.m. Saturday until time to go to the cemetery for the interment.

GAMBLE GOES INTO COURT; CHARGES SHE IS "PRISONER"

NEW YORK (AP) — Runaway heiress Gamble Benedict, charged as a ward of court, today with a countercharge that she is being illegally detained by her socialite family.

The 19-year-old girl, who ran off to Paris several weeks ago with a married ex-chauveur, Andre Porumbeanu was taken to girls' term court in Brooklyn Wednesday by her grandmother, Katherine Geddes Benedict.

Magistrate Corning G. McKenney made Gamble a ward of the court while investigating the wayward minor charge.

Porumbeanu Here

McKenney paroled her in custody of Mrs. Benedict pending a further hearing Feb. 26.

Porumbeanu, 35, who flew in from Paris early Wednesday to be near Gamble was in the Brooklyn Court House, but the pair did not meet.

In Manhattan Wednesday Gamble's attorney, Philip Handelman, sought a habeas corpus writ charging the girl was being illegally detained by her family.

State Supreme Court Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter set a hearing for today.

Smuggled Note Out

Handelman produced in court a photostatic copy of a note scrawled by Gamble on toilet tissue. It read "I am at 42 East 73rd Street held by my brother Help. Locked in I love Andre."

Handelman said Gamble had the note smuggled to Samuel D. Mercer, a lawyer who represented her in Paris. Handelman didn't say how he got the note.

The Romanian-born Porumbeanu, married and the father of a young child, is estranged from his wife. He has said his wife has consented to a divorce and that he intends to marry Gamble. Since her husband's romance with Gamble however, Mrs. Porumbeanu disappeared and is listed as a missing person. She is believed to be somewhere in Germany.

"Treated Like Animal"

Outside the courthouse after the Brooklyn hearing, Porumbeanu wailed to Gamble as she was driven away with her grandmother in the family limousine.

Porumbeanu told newsmen "A light came into her face when she realized I was here. She tried to roll down the window but they stopped her. They are treating her like an animal. She looks pale and somehow older."

"LORD HELPED ME ACROSS"

NEW ORLEANS La (AP) — "Everybody said they didn't see how I got across. I know how I got across. The good Lord was with me."

Bradford Coleman, a truck driver from Hattiesburg, Miss., made those comments in giving his account of what happened on the Lake Pontchartrain Causeway after a barge jammed it Wednesday.

Coleman was driving a truck across the 24-mile span when the accident occurred during a heavy fog.

He said he could feel the span sinking under the truck, loaded with 25,000 pounds of groceries.

When Coleman finally reached safety on an adjoining section of the world's longest bridge, the truck was badly damaged.

Crewmen on the tug Clara Bell, which was pushing the barge, radioed to shore parties to block the bridge approaches.

Bridge officials estimate repairs will take at least 10 days.

Algeria's

Home guards in Algeria, who are siding with the insurgents, intervened at a postal bank Wednesday when Moslem employees tried to get it reopened for business.

Gen. De Gaulle showed no indication of budging from his determination to let the Algerians eventually decide their own future — integration with France, home rule under France or independence.

Support Shakes Spirits

The solid support of De Gaulle by the people in France has shaken the spirits of the rebellious settlers but their leaders are holding firm in trying to force a modification of his policy.

The insurgents had counted on a wave of popular support in France — something like that touched off by the Algerian revolt in May 1958.

French army commanders took the side of the settlers in that bloodless uprising which toppled the Fourth French Republic and paved the way for De Gaulle to gain power. Many of the same rightists are leading the current revolt.

LICENSED TO WED

Ivan Hartman, Gettysburg, and Kathryn Ann Abell, Emmitsburg, have secured a marriage license in Frederick.

WINDS CANCEL BALLOON FLIGHT

ABOARD U S CARRIER VALLEY FORGE (AP)—Project Skyhook scientists called off plans to launch another 500-foot balloon today because of strong winds in the upper altitudes.

With only two more of the giant balloons left, they decided caution must prevail even if it extends the series of launchings beyond Friday when they had planned to end the experiments.

The balloons are to carry 800-pound packs of photographic film up 20 miles or more to study cosmic rays. The goal is to keep the film at that height for two days.

One of the super giant balloons was launched successfully Tuesday, but the payload had to be brought down by radio signal after only eight hours because adverse winds threatened to carry the balloon over the jungles of South America.

President Answers Young Mother In His TV Address

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A 21-year-old mother of two children, Shirley Jean Havens, was flustered — but pleased — when President Eisenhower gave a public answer Wednesday night to a letter she wrote him.

The President addressed his speech on a closed circuit telecast to "dinner with Ike" celebrations in 80 cities—directly to Mrs. Havens. He explained why he thinks she should register as a Republican.

Asked if she plans to follow the advice, Mrs. Havens gasped, bewildered, "I don't know."

Mrs. Havens and her husband, Williams M. Havens also 21 were sitting only a few feet from Mamie Eisenhower when they heard the President's message.

Mamie Visits Mother

Mrs. Eisenhower arrived in Denver less than eight hours earlier to visit her ailing mother, Mrs. John S. Doud. She accompanied the President from Washington as far as Denver on his trip to Los Angeles, where he delivered his talk.

Mrs. Eisenhower arrived at the dinner 15 minutes before the closed circuit telecast. She was given a standing ovation.

Mrs. Havens and her husband were guests at the dinner of Aksel Nielsen, Denver businessman and friend of the President. Several days ago, she said Nielsen called upon her to find out if she had been sincere when she wrote the President last November asking what political party she should join.

Nielsen returned last Thursday, Shirley Jean explained, with a letter from the President which said he would give her a more complete answer later.

Mrs. Havens and her husband live in a trailer home in suburban Arvada. Their two children are William M., Jr., 4 years old, and Cynthia, 2½. Havens is employed by a plumbing firm.

Havens described himself to reporters as a Republican, but said neither he nor his wife have yet registered to vote.

4TH POLARIS MISSILE FIRED

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A fourth straight success has moved the Polaris missile closer to the day when it will be carried aboard nuclear submarines. But a fizzle on the pad has left the future of the intercontinental range Titan undecided.

Meanwhile, missilemen at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., successfully launched a tethered Minuteman missile from an underground concrete pit Wednesday.

The Minuteman, equipped with a first stage engine designed for short duration flight, was hauled a few hundred feet in the air by nylon cable. The solid propellant missile is designed to carry nuclear warheads 6,000 miles or more.

Today's Talk

ON BOOKS AND READING
Can you imagine a world without books? It's like looking on a world without people, birds, or animals in it. I think of books as being people, for that is what they are. I have always loved to read the essays of Montaigne. They comprise one of the frankest books in all literature. Montaigne himself once said: "If you want to know about me read my book." It can be read again and again, and every time it seems fresher than before. That's why it is a great book and will live through the ages.

You can't read Thoreau without touching Walden Pond, getting the fragrance from its wild location, and something that Thoreau breathed into it. It's that kind of book — one for the lover of great books, one that touches all nature and all life. I often take a walk where I imagine this great friend of nature has walked and dreamed. I don't seem to get tired of reading all about Thoreau, and I have many of his books, and many about him. A writer seems always to put a great deal of himself into all that he writes. Thoreau did. He got joy out of thinking. Walking and reading can well be described as major occupations. Each one can throw out branches of thought that are a part of their vital self.

It always interested me to see Harry Kemp, the poet — and a good one — as he so often, in the past, walked with a copy of Keats' poems in his hip pocket!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "Moods".

Just Folks

THE JOYS OF NOW
These are the days we shall talk about
In the years to come, my brother;
These are the days we shall single out
As richer than any other.
When Time has silvered each wrinkled brow,
Then we shall treasure the friends of now.

Today we are building our Long Ago;
These are our happy years;
These are the joys we shall yearn to know
And see through the mist of tears.
This is the street, and these the trees
That shall brighten our glorious memories.

These are the friends we shall long to see,
And these are the days, my brother,
That we shall keep in our memory
As fairer than any other.
So let us treasure them while we may,
Nor wait till we find they have slipped away.

Cuba Continues To Blame U.S. For Recent "Freeze"

By RICHARD VALERIANI
HAVANA (AP)—The Cuban government insists the United States is responsible for the freeze in U.S.-Cuban relations.

It has rejected what it calls "insinuations" by President Eisenhower that intrigues by International Communism may be causing the rift.

President Osvaldo Dorticos declared in a formal policy address Wednesday night that strained relations are "a direct consequence of the misunderstanding shown by the United States government toward the development and objectives of the Cuban revolution."

He added, however, that all problems between the two countries can be solved through normal diplomatic channels if there is "absolute respect for our sovereignty."

Reply To Ike
Dorticos' speech carried on TV, was in reply to Eisenhower's statement at his White House news conference Tuesday.

The President announced a policy of nonintervention in Cuban affairs. He added the U.S. government is confident the Cuban people will "recognize and defeat the intrigues of International Communism which are aimed at destroying Democratic institutions in Cuba and the traditional and mutually beneficial friendship be-

2 PROTESTANT PUBLICATIONS HIT KENNEDY

NEW YORK (AP)—Two major Protestant magazines say they believe Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), if elected president, would be subject to restrictions of the Roman Catholic Church.

The magazines, The Christian Century and The Lutheran, said Wednesday they base their view on the fact that Kennedy had withdrawn in 1951 from participation in an interfaith chapel service in Philadelphia. The magazines said the withdrawal was made at the suggestion of the Catholic Archdiocese there.

The chapel is a memorial to four chaplains who lost their lives in the torpedoing of a troop ship off Greenland during World War II.

Lacked Credentials
The Christian Century said Kennedy had declined to attend the service on the ground that he felt he had "no credentials" because the Philadelphia Archdiocese was unable to support the chapel built in the lower floor of a Protestant church.

The Lutheran said that "if Mr. Kennedy were president, he would be subject to the same kind of discipline that he acknowledges as senator."

The Lutheran said editorially that if Kennedy became the Democratic presidential nominee, the religious debate would "follow him into the White House, if he should be elected."

Possible Result
"His attendance at a Protestant service would be cause for confession to his priest and subsequent penance," the paper added. "His church could properly admonish him...because it does not recognize that there is any true religion other than its own."

The Lutheran, however, praised Kennedy for his "wisdom in facing the matter" of religious belief opening.

man had brought suit against Strausbaugh's executor, the Gettysburg National Bank, as a result of injuries he received in the accident. John L. and Katherine S. Fitz, Orrtanna R. D., son-in-law and daughter of Strausbaugh, and owners of the car Strausbaugh was operating at the time of the accident, had brought suit against Flesham and Dixie Plywood for damages to their car and Dixie Plywood had brought suit for damages to its truck.

With the settlement of the personal injury and "wrongful death" actions the amount involved dropped below the amount that must be involved in Middle District court cases. Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, representing the local litigants, said today.

As a result, the Middle District court this week returned all papers to the Adams County court.

Settlement Sums Not Given
In returning the papers the district court said the action of Mr. and Mrs. Fitz for recovery of damages to their car is "remanded to the Adams County court without prejudice." The property damage case of Dixie Plywood against the executor of the Strausbaugh estate is also "remanded to the Adams County Court without prejudice."

According to the papers filed with the prothonotary's office by the district court, the wrongful death action is "dismissed with prejudice," since it was settled, and the personal injury charge is also "dismissed with prejudice," meaning that it also was settled. The amount of the settlements was not revealed by attorneys here.

Raise Two Salaries
The estimate of expenditures includes $3,741 for administration; $1,250 for tax collection; $1,790 for borough buildings or offices; police, $9,200 for operation and maintenance and $3,000 for capital outlay; fire, $2,534; health and sanitation, $650; highways, $16,500, and $4,000 for street lighting; parks and recreation, $20, and miscellaneous, $595; total, $43,280, which would leave a balance of $44,818 at the end of 1960 to carry the borough operation up to the point where 1961 taxes will come in.

Other council action raised the salary of the janitor at the Alpha fire house from $250 to $300 and the retainer fee for the solicitor was increased $100 to a new total of $300.

Parking meter collections for the last month were reported as $381.44.

Street Repairs Ordered
The monthly report of the chief of police showed 39 overtime parking violations, two in a no-parking zone and one for parking on the wrong side of the street.

The chief also listed 12 motor code violations in the town in the last month. Chief Mummert made one criminal, four accident, two government and seven outside agency investigations.

The street committee reported a bad condition on the crosswalk at the Pennsylvania Railroad right of way on M St. and the secretary was directed to ask the railroad to correct the condition. Secretary Keefer also said that chuck holes in W. King St. between Colorado and Virginia Aves. had been reported to him and the

Littlestown Council Adopts '60 Budget; Will Purchase Police Car And Add Officer

Littlestown borough councilmen, at their January meeting that did not adjourn until 12:20 a.m. on Wednesday, adopted a $34,280 budget for 1960, based upon continuation of the same 18-mill tax rate, and voted for purchase of a police car and the employment of an additional full-time policeman.

President Robert J. Stonesifer presided at the meeting with all members of council present for their first regular meeting this year and with most other borough officials in attendance.

The proposed budget was presented to the council by its Finance committee and after minor changes were made council voted unanimously that the budget be advertised as being available for inspection for 10 days in the office of Borough Secretary Roger J. Keefer.

Doubles Regular Force
It was pointed out that the budget makes provision for purchase of the town's first police department automobile at the suggestion of Burgess Elmer G. Miller. Council decided unanimously it "would be to the best advantage" for the borough to own a police car and the Safety committee was to obtain information to guide council in advertising for and buying such a car at some future meeting.

Secretary Keefer, also by unanimous vote, was directed to advertise for another policeman to be employed on a full-time basis. The only full-time officer now employed by the town is Chief of Police Calvin Mummert. Some special officers serve on a part-time basis when needed.

The new budget takes into account the $9,134 which the town had in bank at the beginning of the year. It anticipates $27,976 from the real estate levy and $1,523 from occupation taxes. It is expected also that taxes from prior years not yet paid will bring in $1,200 this year. Other principal receipt items include $1,325 from licenses and permits; $800 from fines, forfeits and costs; $140 from interest and rents; $1,500 from grants and gifts; $4,500 from departmental earnings and $8,265 from miscellaneous sources.

4 Negroes Abduct White Girl, Aged 19

HADDONFIELD, N. J. (AP)—Four Negroes abducted a 19-year-old white girl from her fiancé Wednesday night as the couple sat in their parked car in this southern New Jersey community.

The girl escaped after a struggle. She told police the men forced her to undress at gunpoint and three of them tried to assault her. Officers said she was not raped.

Police withheld the girl's name. Officers said the men took $5 and the car keys from her fiancé, Frank R. Buckman Jr., 23, of Haddon Twp., N. J.

Several teen-agers found the hysterical girl a half-hour after her abduction walking along a road about a half mile from where she was forced into the abductors' car.

Thick Fog Blankets West Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A thick, heavy fog settled over most of Western Pennsylvania today, causing hazardous driving conditions. Visibility dropped to zero in some areas.

Greater Pittsburgh Airport reported visibility of 1/4 of a mile. Planes were permitted to land at the discretion of pilots but several flights went on to alternate airports.

Zero visibility was reported in the areas of Bradford and Philipsburg.

From one to two inches of new snow were reported in the areas of Bradford, Ridgway and Emporium. Roads were slippery in spots.

SEATTLE (AP)—Two Western girls and a fellow Easterner went after Carol Heiss' senior ladies crown today in the National Figure Skating Championships here.

On hand to compete with the New York lass were Laurence Owen of Boston, Barbara Ann Roles of Paramount, Calif., and Stephanie Westfield of Colorado Springs, Colo.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Right-hander Roy Face, who posted an 18-1 record with the Pittsburgh Pirates during the 1959 season, today signed his 1960 contract. Terms were not disclosed but he reportedly received a substantial boost.

The ancient city of Carthage, once a rival of Rome in the Mediterranean, was located near the present city of Tunis.

The Olympic Games, part of which will be held in Squaw Valley, Calif., in February, were so important to the ancient Greeks that they were used to measure time. The original games were foot races in honor of Zeus, king of the Greek gods.

In the 300's B. C. it became customary to mark in "Olympiads," the periods of four years between celebrations of the Olympic Games. All events were dated from 776 B. C., the date of the first recorded race.

The custom disappeared about A. D. 440, after the 304th Olympiad.

The Olympic festivals were originated by the people of Elis, a Greek city-state on the plains of Olympia. Gradually, all the Greek city-states joined in the Olympics. Other contests, such as jumping, discus-throwing and chariot-racing, were added.

As the city-states declined, athletes from other lands began to participate in the games.

In about A. D. 60, the Roman emperor Nero entered the contests. One of the purposes of the games was to glorify the individual, his skill and his sportsmanship. But Nero was a poor athlete and by competing he lowered the standards.

The games deteriorated and by A. D. 394 they had become so corrupt that Emperor Theodosius abolished them.

Centuries passed, while earthquakes and floods buried the plain under 20 feet of gravel and soil.

When excavators found the ruins of the ancient stadium in 1878, interest in the games was revived. In 1896 eight nations took part in the first Olympics of the modern age.

Women made their first appearance in the modern Olympic Games in 1912.

The Winter Olympic Games were interested in 1924, in France. World Book Encyclopedia reports that the Winter Olympics consist of skiing, skating, ice hockey and bobsledding.

No nation ever really wins the Olympic Games. The purpose of the games is to let the great athletes of the world compete in a spirit of peace and friendship. The practice of ranking nation against nation is unofficial.

The marathon foot race of the Olympic Games commemorates one of the decisive battles of history. In 490 B. C. a Greek named Pheidippides raced 20 miles to Athens to announce the victory of the Greeks over the Persians on the plain of Marathon. He gasped out the news before falling dead of exhaustion.

SWEAT-SHIRT DINNER BOLT IS INCREASING

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—The sweat-shirt rebellion against Drury College's dress-for-dinner edict gained momentum Wednesday night. Outside agitators, armed with french bread and soup, joyously joined the revolt.

Undergraduates from Southwest Missouri State College, across town from Drury, set up a "come as you are" soup line on the Drury campus.

Attracted by signs reading "have soup, will feed Drury in need"; and "SMS foreign aid," more than 200 Drury rebels spurned the steak and potatoes served in the college dining hall to partake of the soup line's spare fare.

Uniform of the day was sweat shirts, sweaters and bobby socks. The dining hall served only 12 diners and most of them were faculty members of the little privately endowed school. Tuesday night, the dining hall had served 62. Its normal quota is 250.

Strike Started Monday
The student strike began Monday. At issue is the refusal of Dr. James Findlay, president of Drury, to relax the requirement that students who eat in the dining hall must dress for dinner. Men must wear coats and ties. Women must wear heels and hose.

In past years, the rule has been relaxed during the week of final examinations. This year, Dr. Findlay ordered it enforced. He explained that dressing for dinner is part of Drury's "educational plan to teach something about the social amenities."

Most of Drury's 700 students live off campus and are not involved in the revolt.

YOUTHS HURT IN EXPLOSION

READING, Pa. (AP)—Four boys, trying to make rocket fuel in a high school laboratory, were injured Wednesday when their concoction exploded.

One lost two fingers. Two others suffered eye injuries from flying glass from shattered windows and laboratory equipment.

Assistant Principal Aaron A. Miller of nearby West Lawn High School said the boys weren't supposed to be in the chemistry lab. He said they had been attending a demonstration for the school radio club, but had left without the instructor's knowledge.

Chemicals Mixed
Miller said the boys were mixing chemicals brought from home with those found in the laboratory when the explosion occurred.

The boys were listed in satisfactory condition at Reading Hospital.

They are Walter Leis, 16, of Montrose, who lost two fingers; Jerry Cook, 15, of West Wyoming; and Richard Wolf, 16, of Wernersville R. 1, who suffered eye injuries, and William Ruth, 15, of West Wyoming.

Wednesday switched to Norway.

The flame for next month's games now is to come from a cottage hearth in Morgedal, considered the cradle of modern Norwegian skiing. The cottage belonged to Sondre Norheim, a 19th century Norwegian ski star.

The flame likely will be flown to Los Angeles, then brought here by a relay of 600 high school runners, each carrying the torch a lighting place, so the 1960 staff

Squires Battle Warriors Here Friday; Full Card In Adams-Franklin League

Another capacity crowd is expected at the Gettysburg High School gymnasium Friday evening when the Warriors and Delone Catholic Squires clash in their second basketball game of the season.

George Forney's Warriors took a 52-50 squeaker at McSherrystown on December 22 and another nip and tuck battle is anticipated Friday.

Delone, 5-6 overall for the campaign, is bent on avenging its earlier loss and will depend on Dan Miller 6-2, Bill Solomon 6-2, Tom Smith 5-8, "Chick" Livelsberger, Jim Livelsberger 5-9, and Cyril Weaver 5-10, to turn the trick.

The Warriors currently sport a 7-4 mark. Their starters are expected to be Roger Ecker 6-3, Mike Small 6-1, Bob Furney 6-0, Hardy Nichols 5-10, and Greg Matland 5-8. Backing up that group will be Jimmy Townsend, Jimmy Roth, Don Waddell and Don Goldsmith.

One Streak Must End

Gettysburg's jayvees, 30-24 losers at Delone, will attempt to avenge that setback in the preliminary at 6:45. Coach Mark Eckhart's outfit is 2-8 and has lost live in a row. Delone's scrubs are also 2-8 and have lost four straight.

Gettysburg Junior High travels to Washington Township Friday for a pair of South Penn Junior High League games.

Biglerville takes on another tough customer in York Catholic on the latter's floor. The Canners have dropped their last seven games for a 2-10 mark. York tied Bishop McDevitt for first place in the first half race of the Central Penn Catholic League and has shown steady improvement in recent weeks.

Battle For Lead

The big game in the Adams-Franklin League will be the scrap between Scotland (6-2) and Greencastle (7-2) at Greencastle for the lead in the Franklin Division.

Unbeaten Littlestown (8-0) should get by Quincy (3-6) at Littlestown; New Oxford (6-3) is favored at St. Thomas (1-8); Bermudian (6-3) looms the winner at Fannett-Metal (1-8) while Fairfield (2-7), a much improved squad, has a good chance of topping Buchanan (4-3) at Fairfield.

LITTLE CHANGE IN TIGERS BUT HOPE FOR BEST

By JIMMY DYKES
Manager, Detroit Tigers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Detroit Tigers of 1960 will be about the same as last year yet I can't help feeling we will improve upon our fourth-place finish of last year.

Remember, the Tigers won only 2 of their first 17 games last year, yet finished in the first division. We played .540 ball after the first three weeks, winning 74 and losing 63. That would have been good enough for third place.

Of course, we're thinking in terms of pennant in 1960. We've got good front-line pitching—maybe the best in the league—and our outfield of Al Kaline, Harvey Kuenn and Charlie Maxwell is the best hitting regular trio in the league.

Need Bench Strength

My team's biggest disappointment last year was the lack of bench strength and also in the bullpen. We haven't improved much in either department unless some of my younger players come through. The infield gave me some headaches last year. We were woefully weak at first base and shortstop. Steve Bilko, whom we drafted last year, may help us. I plan to give him a good shot at first base. Gail Harris and Larry Osborne played the bag last year. I think Chico Fernandez, who we obtained from Philadelphia, will help us at short. Rocky Bridges gave us a good try last year but was hurt in midseason. I'm not worried about second and third where we have Frank Bolling and Eddie Yost. They're class ball players.

Need Long Ball Hitter

Only four starters won all but 11 games for us last year. Frank Lary was 17-10, Jim Bunning 17-13, Don Mossi 17-9 and Paul Poytack 14-14. Ray Semprowich, whom we got from Philadelphia, may be our fifth starter. He had a poor record with the Phillies but he's young and healthy. We definitely need relief help and that will be the major job I'll have in spring training—to put together a bullpen.

Our catching is all right. We could use a long-ball hitter in the receiving department but which team can't.

Boston Celtics Open New Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Boston Celtics are off on another winning streak but they still have 10 games to go before matching the National Basketball Assn. record of 17 straight which they equaled earlier in the season.

The Eastern Division leaders made it seven in their latest string with a 127-114 conquest Wednesday night of St. Louis, top team in the Western Division, after the Philadelphia Warriors had downed the New York Knicks 128-117 in the first game of a double-header at Boston. The results left the Celtics still 4½ games in front of the Warriors.

The two other games, also a doubleheader, were at Detroit. The Syracuse Nationals turned back the Detroit Pistons 144-108 after dropping four straight and the Minneapolis Lakers bested the hapless Cincinnati Royals 116-112 for their first victory in six games.

Bloomsburg Wins Over Lock Haven

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — Wrestling coach Russ Houk of Bloomsburg State College was a member of the 1952 Lock Haven mat team which began a long winning streak. The string ran through 36 matches until Wednesday night when Bloomsburg applied the stopper.

Bloomsburg's 15-11 decision was revenge for the defeat Lock Haven handed them last season, spoiling a 10-0 record.

Houk's squad won five decisions Wednesday night. Lock Haven won two decisions and a pin.

The crowd of 2,000 was the largest ever to watch a dual meet here.

NAMED DAVIS CUP CAPTAIN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

U.S. tennis circles — without a noteworthy dissent—today hailed the selection of David Freed as America's Davis Cup captain.

The Salt Lake City financier, little known in bigtime tennis, was described as a good administrator, a firm leader and good developer of talent.

U.S. officials also were commended for naming Bernard (Tut) Bartenz of Dallas assistant captain.

Freed, 50, has been an executive committee member of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. for many years. He won the U.S. Seniors crown in 1954.

Bartenz, a three-time National Clay Court winner, gained the semifinals of the National Grass Court Championships at Forest Hills last year and is America's top amateur.

"The fact I am assistant captain does not mean I will or will not play," he said. "Naturally I'll be considered, but it will be my job to get the other players in shape."

RACING DATES ARE SCHEDULED

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Month Park Race Track has again been awarded the lucrative first week of August as part of its racing season.

As in previous years, the State Racing Commission again turned down the bid of Atlantic City Race Track to open its season earlier and get the first week of August.

The commission Wednesday announced these dates for the 1960 racing season:

Garden State near Camden—A 24-day spring meet, from April 30 to May 30 inclusive; and a 26-day fall meet, from Oct. 8 to Nov. 12, inclusive.

Monmouth Park, Oceanport—A 50-day season from June 10 to Aug. 6, inclusive.

Atlantic City Race Track—A 50-day season from Aug. 8 to Oct. 4, inclusive.

Freehold Harness Track—Any 50 clear racing days from Aug. 6 to Oct. 8, inclusive.

Cage Star Given Suspended Fine

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia Tech basketball star Dave Denton has been given a suspended $1 fine for scalping tickets.

Denton and two other Tech students pleaded no contest before Municipal Judge James Webb Wednesday.

The judge said Denton was widely known as a member of the Tech team, now ranked sixth in the nation in The Associated Press poll, and that in his opinion there was nothing at all in this case to detract from his standing.

The three students were arrested Monday night shortly before the Tech - Kentucky basketball game. Atlanta detectives said Denton tried to sell them two $2 tickets for $20.

FRISCO SEEKS BERTH IN AFL

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The fledgling American Football League promised that it would not run into difficulties similar to those of its established counterpart, the National Football League. It had made a good start along that line in opening its first annual meeting Tuesday.

It considered the applications of Atlanta and Oakland for the eighth spot in the league, then had to postpone a decision because it got an unexpected bid later from San Francisco.

The NFL was deadlocked at Miami for a solid week over naming a commissioner. The AFL won't have that difficulty since it already has Joe Foss as commissioner. But it could be hung up on the selection of the eighth city although Lamar Hunt of Dallas, president of the league, said he figured they would wind up their meeting Thursday and that the city selected would be by unanimous vote.

Cities already in the league are Dallas, Houston, New York, Buffalo, Boston, Denver and Los Angeles.

Bigler Wrestlers Host To Hanover

Tonight at 7:30 the Biglerville High School wrestlers will meet Hanover at Biglerville in a District 3, Section 2 meet.

Johnny Toggas' grapplers are tied with West York for second place in the league and sport an overall record of 4-2. Hanover is 1-1 in the league.

Unbeaten York defeated York Central Wednesday evening 34-18. In another sectional affair tonight West York is at Dover.

Rangers Continue Press Of Leaders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thirty-seven points separate the National Hockey League's pace-setting Montreal Canadiens and the last-place New York Rangers. But you never would surmise there is that much difference by comparing their records.

The Canadiens, who have lost only eight games all season, and the Rangers have met 10 times. New York has won four and tied one. The tie came Wednesday night when they deadlocked 2-2 at Madison Square Garden.

In the league's only other game, the Toronto Maple Leafs moved within a point of second-place Detroit by downing the Chicago Black Hawks 2-1.

HENRY HANK GAINS TKO OVER BOWDRY

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Ever since fighter Henry Hank, a onetime Detroit Zoo helper, beat a cage lion to the punch, his reflexes have been sharp.

Hank, 24 years old and out-weighted 165 to 173, showed his shots Wednesday night by flooring Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis twice in the third round and nailing him again in the sixth for a technical knockout.

After his sensational TV fight in Chicago Stadium, Hank, father of five children, told interviewers: "I'm a full time fighter now, but a couple of years ago I had to take part time work to make ends meet," he said. "There was this lion dozing near the bars of his cage. I never touched a lion before and I followed an urge to do it."

Full Of Confidence

"I reached in and one of his paws reached for me. I got my hand out in time."

His spirits rising with this story, Hank, No. 5 ranked middle-weight, continued:

"I'm glad everybody liked me in this fight. There are four guys ahead of me in the ratings and I could take three of them out the same night."

"I would get Ray Robinson, an old man, and the guy who beat him, Paul Pender, by the third or fourth rounds."

"CAMPY" IS SURE HE'LL WALK AGAIN

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
GLEN COVE, N. Y. (AP) — Above the special-built bed, on the wall of Roy Campanella's bedroom, hangs a small plaque.
The inscription on it reads: "Before you can score, you must have a goal. Your goal is to walk again and with God's help, you will score."
Campanella prizes this ordinary-looking six-by-six inch plaque as much as any of the dozens of awards, including his three most valuable player plaques he received as a big league baseball star.

"Some Day I'll Walk"
"I look at it every day," Roy explained, "and every time I look at it, I get a big lift. I haven't walked for two years now and I still have no response at all from my legs. But deep inside of me, I have the feeling that some day I will walk again."

"Oh, I'm not trying to kid myself. The worst thing a person can do is to mislead himself. But I honestly don't think I am. And if I don't ever walk again, I still won't quit. I'll accept it as the will of God. Look, after what I've been through since the accident, I feel I can accept anything."

Today marks the second anniversary of Campanella's tragic automobile accident on the morning of Jan. 28, 1958, an accident that hospitalized the former Brooklyn Dodger catcher for nine months and left him paralyzed from the waist down.

"Thank God"
What impresses people most upon first contact with Campanella is his cheerfulness and his outward good health.

"To me," he said, "the most important thing is that I'm able to support my family. That's the purpose of every man in this world. Thank God I am able to support my family the same way I did before the accident."

Campanella has had his own daily network radio show for over a year. Recently, he began a local weekly television show. He also will handle the in-between portion of 16 doubleheaders of New York Yankee games next season. In addition, Campy owns and operates a liquor store in Harlem.

Officials Confer On School Aid Plan

HARRISBURG (AP)—State and federal officials confer here today on the problem of reimbursing school districts for educating the children of military personnel who live on government property.

The federal government pays to school districts, in lieu of taxes, an amount equal to taxes paid by property owners in the districts for the education of children of federal employees living on government bases.

Under a 1953 State Supreme Court decision the Commonwealth is not required to contribute for such children on grounds they are technically not residents of Pennsylvania and not entitled to free public education.

However, a state education official acknowledged Wednesday night the Commonwealth had made subsidy payments for the military dependents over a five-year period despite the 1953 court decision and a subsequent Justice Department ruling that such reimbursements need not be made.

FOUR SEEKING EIGHTH SPOT IN GRID LOOP

DALLAS (AP) — The American Professional Football League winds up its first annual meeting today attempting to select its eighth team but with small prospect of doing it.

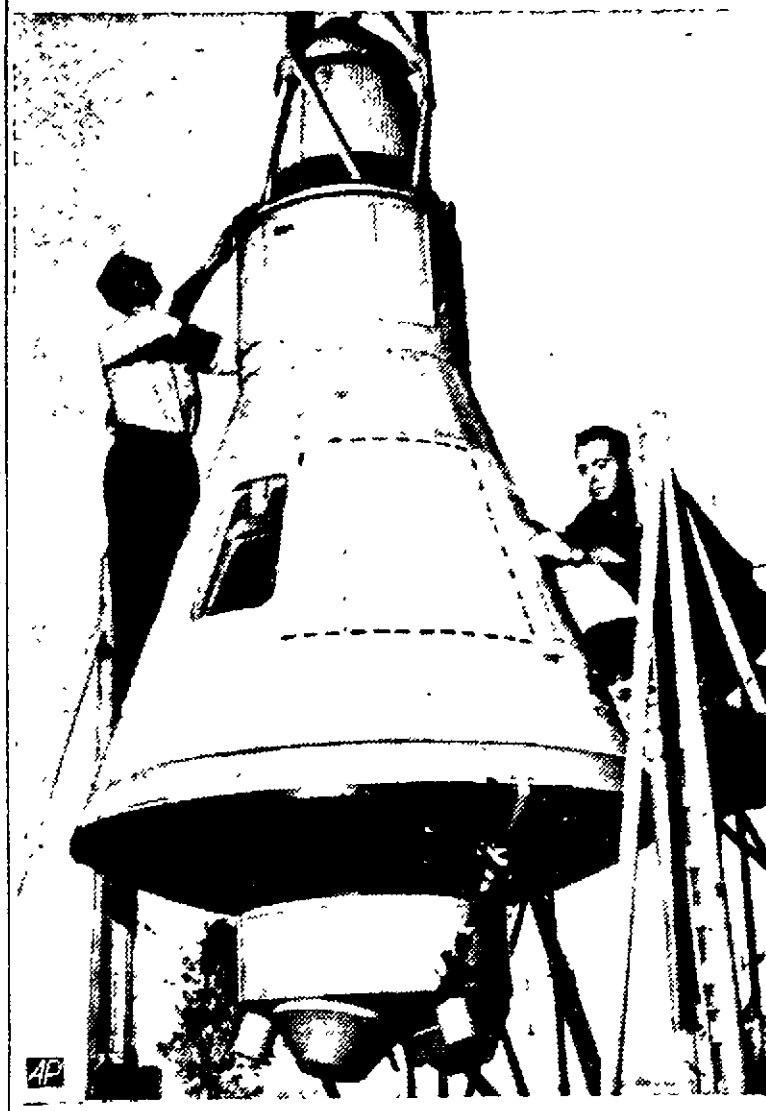

President Lamar Hunt of Dallas predicted that it wouldn't be accomplished although there are four applicants. He said this would necessitate a telephone ballot requiring a week or 10 days.

Atlanta, Oakland and San Francisco already have submitted bids in person while two Miami groups have asked to be considered. One of those, headed by Bob Neal, representative of a Cleveland syndicate, will have a chance only if it fails to obtain a National Football League franchise and the AFL isn't filled by that time. The other, whose group wasn't identified by Hunt, will not be considered at all.

Reason Given
Hunt said a study of the stadium facilities of the applicants was the main reason for postponement of the selection.

General opinion was that Oakland had the best chance of getting the last franchise because it is backed by Barron Hilton, owner

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Hometown heroes Billy Casper and Gene Littler shared gallery support today as a field of 150 professional golfers swung away in the first round of the $20,000 San Diego Open.

DAYTON NAILS VPI FOR 14TH WIN OF SEASON

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Looks as if the Dayton Flyers, who make the National Invitation Basketball Tournament a March habit, will be heading to New York at tournament time again.

Coach Tom Blackburn has blended sophomores Gary Roggenbuck and Tom Hatton with holdovers Frank Case, Mike Allen and Stan Greenberg into a team that's more than making up for last season's club that blew an NIT bid by dropping five of its last six games.

When the Flyers decisively snapped ambitious Virginia Tech's eight-game winning streak 77-59 Wednesday night, they built their own win string to six and their overall record to 14-3.

W.Va. Breasts Pitt
The loss was only the third in 15 games for VPI, ranked 17th nationally this week after pulling in to a tie at 6-0 with classy West Virginia for the Southern Conference lead.

West Virginia, fourth-ranked nationally, nailed a 16-1 record by beating Pitt 76-66. Kentucky bounced back from its thumping loss to Georgia Tech by drubbing

Boy And Sister Drown Near Shore

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — A boy and his sister almost reached an island in the middle of a lake when the ice gave way and they drowned.

Michael Tiani, 11, and Jean, 10, wanted to play on the island in Farnham Park. They were 60 feet from shore and 12 feet from the island Wednesday when the ice gave way.

Richard Ross, 9, saw his friends' plight from shore and ran to a police car cruising in the park. The children were pulled out but could not be revived.

The police car was assigned to the park to keep children away from the ice.

NBC JOINS CBS IN KEEPING ITS PUBLIC POSTED

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK AP — The National Broadcasting Co. has now joined its rival Columbia Broadcasting System in a policy of telling the public precisely what it is looking at or listening to.

The new NBC rules seem the more moderate. For one thing, the language to be used is simpler. Under some circumstances, CBS requires such complicated announcements as "certain portions of this recorded program were pre-recorded," "NBC settles for a simple 'this program was pre-recorded'."

NBC, unlike CBS, has decided that canned laughter — recorded chuckles deliberately inserted in comedy shows — is a snowman's device rather than a deceitful practice. The network, therefore, will not tell us when canned laughter is used in a show. But it plans to make sure that when it is needed, it will be used expertly and inoffensively.

Sensible Decision

Surely this is a sensible decision. Those CBS announcements — "audience reaction technically augmented" — at the end of, for instance, a Jack Benny show, do not increase the enjoyment of this viewer.

Meanwhile, John Daly, vice president at the American Broadcasting Company, says of his network's news coverage: "We have always observed the best possible journalistic ethics. I have no nukes or thundering pronouncements to make."

Current Topics

Those winter viruses are still upsetting the plans of TV producers. Shelley Winters had to cancel out of "Too Early to Die," the Feb. 7 GE Theater show, and Kim Hunter will step into her role. Sam Levenson can't make the NBC debut of "Masquerade Party" Friday night, and his spot

NEW NUCLEAR REACTOR FOR BEDFORD CO.

UNIVERSITY PARK Pa. AP — A nuclear reactor to be built in Saxton, Bedford County, will be made available to Pennsylvania State University for research and instruction.

Dr. Eric A. Walker, university president, said today Penn State had agreed to become a participating member of the Saxton Nuclear Experimental Corp. No financial investment will be required of the university and it will be free to withdraw at any time, he added.

Louis H. Roddis Jr., chairman of the corporation, said Penn State's participation will be in keeping with his group's objective of advancing techniques for generating electric power by nuclear means.

The university said membership will give graduate students and faculty members the opportunity to help in obtaining and evaluating data from an actual operating reactor integrated into a power system.

Contract, have already been let for construction of a 20,000-t.e.r.-small kilowatt nuclear reactor adjacent to the Saxton generating station of the Pennsylvania Electric Co. The work is expected to take about 2½ years.

Pennsy Profits Doubled In 1959

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad says 1959 profits were almost twice those of 1958, despite the steel strike.

The nation's largest railroad announced Wednesday last year's earnings were $7,267,100, compared with $3,544,100 in 1958, a recession year.

The railroad said only passenger revenue dropped. It totaled $103,952,398, a decrease of 4 million or 3.9 per cent from 1958.

The railroad earned more than half its 1959 profit in December. Net income was $4,261,600, compared with $2,374,100 in December, 1958.

Gross revenues were $87,683,858, an increase of $4,451,765 over 1958. Expenses rose 12 million dollars to $72,472,686.

disclosed, but Face was reported to have received a substantial boost. He is the eighth Pirate to sign.

Nick Mickoski, 33-year-old center who has been up and down so many times he probably has lost count, and youthful Bruce Gamble are the chief reasons the Providence Reds again hold down a portion of second place in the American Hockey League.

Mickoski scored three goals and added two assists and 21-year-old Gamble turned back 42 Buffalo shots as the Reds defeated the Bisons 8-5 Wednesday night and moved into a tie with the idle Rochester Americans.

Four of the Providence goals came within a space of a little more than five minutes in the third period as the Reds broke out of a 4-4 tie. Mickoski got the last of the four goals at 13:53 after Danny Poliziani had started the rally at 8:04.

Clark Criticizes Ike Farm Program

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U. S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) says the Eisenhower Administration's "extremely wasteful practices in the farm aid program" are hurting the nation's cities.

He told a news conference Wednesday that it is possible to do "just as good a job for farmers at much less money."

"I favor an end to the surplus food program," he added. "This alone would result in a savings of two billion dollars a year."

That amount, said Clark, would go a long way toward meeting urban needs in housing, slum clearance and renewal, transit and other such city problems.

the same for Cleveland but it was Barry Cullen, called up only four games ago, who provided the winning margin as the Bears defeated the Barons 4-3. It was Hershey's first victory over Cleveland this season after the Barons had won four. Three games ended in ties.

FLOATS FOR 72 HOURS ON LAKE

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Airman Bruce C. Barwise sealed in a floating survival capsule on ice-crusted Lake Erie, passed the halfway mark today in a 72-hour endurance test.

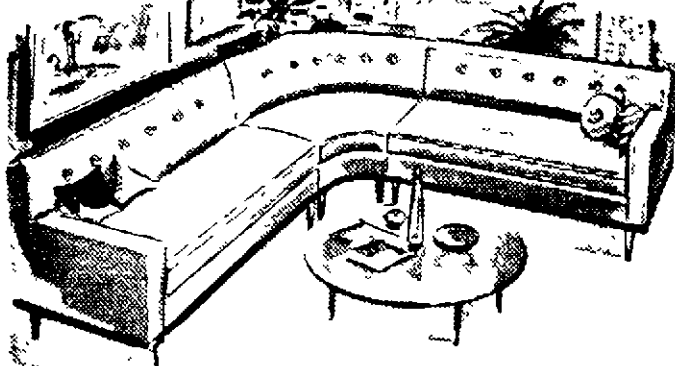

On a boat nearby, Air Force researchers compiled data on his condition and the capabilities of the survival pod.

Barwise, a 34-year-old father of three children, was reported in "fine spirits" and free of the leg cramps that bothered him Wednesday.

The Air Force hopes he will remain in the 2½ x 5½-foot capsule until Friday afternoon. The bright yellow aluminum shell has been designed as an ejection package for use in the supersonic B58 Hustler.

Barwise's 6-foot-2 frame is strapped in a pilot's ejection seat in a position about like a man in a barber's chair getting a shave, as one observer said.

UNCLE SAM SHOULD PAY FOR COLLEGE, SOME CLAIM

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curstone, comments of a pavement plasterer who should pay for a boy's college education, his parents or Uncle Sam?

At present millions of U.S. parents are impoverishing their old age in order to help their offspring with one of civilization's most prized state symbols, a university degree.

Rare Exceptions

Most students shoulder a share of the burden by working part-time to meet some of their expenses. But the main financial flow falls on their parents—that is, unless their son is one of those rare ones who can hit a bull's eye with a football at 60 yards.

Many a family has to mortgage its homestead in order that its small son can pursue subjects such as "The History of Early Roman Bunk Instruments" at old Swarth. Many a father and mother make do with an old suit or old dress so junior can buy a tux to attend his fraternity dance.

The only help Uncle Sam gives in most cases is to allow the parents a $400 annual deduction from their gross income for each son or daughter still in college after the age of 18. This small deduction many parents feel, is a downright atrocity of common sense.

"Just A Sucker"

An embittered father I know had something to say on the subject. "When you get right down to it, a good case can be made for the idea that the federal government, not me, ought to pay for sending my boy through college," he declared.

"I'm just a sucker, in a way. I am breaking my back and risking bankruptcy so that my son will get his sheepskin. It is worth while for him as it will help him get a better job."

"But, looking at it from a pure dollar and cents level, it is a bad investment for me. I will never get back the money I spent for my son's education. After graduating he will probably marry, have his own family, and won't be in a position to return the money I spent to put him through college."

Four Exposed To Radiation Survive

LOS ALAMOS, N. M. (AP)—Four men exposed to nuclear radiation Jan. 15 at this atomic laboratory town are back at work, and an official spokesman says they were unharmed.

A large jug holding 38 grams of plutonium in nitric acid broke. At the time, the spokesman said the plutonium was "enough to contaminate the room." The four, whose names were withheld, were in the room but "a good distance away, which was fortunate," he said.

CLOSE SCHOOL LUNCHES

EULETIC, Ala. (AP) — All school lunchrooms in Elmore County have been closed because of an outbreak of infectious hepatitis, a liver infection commonly called jaundice.

School Supt. Russ McQueen said 62 cases had been reported in the county. The lunchrooms were ordered closed indefinitely Wednesday.

College.
"It is just $10,000 down the drain."

"Now, on the other hand, Uncle Sam will make a lot of money out of that $10,000 my son's education cost me."

"They tell me that each year a boy spends in college is worth about $25,000 in the earnings in later life. That means my son, in return for his four years at the university, has an added future income potential of $100,000."

"Who will get all that money? Well, over the years my son will probably get the use of most of it. But the federal government, I figure conservatively, will collect at least $40,000 of it in the form of income taxes, amusement taxes, telephone bill taxes, airplane ticket taxes."

"How do you like that? I fork out $10,000 to educate my son and get nothing. And Uncle Sam, who put out nothing, will get back $40,000."

"Is that fair? Why shouldn't the federal government put up the $10,000 instead of me? It would still make $30,000 in the long run and a 300 per cent profit isn't to be sneezed at in the long run."

Parents Should Organize

"Uncle Sam now pays farmers to keep from growing crops and subsidizes in one way or another practically any group that raises a big enough holler."

"Isn't it about time for parents to organize and get a place at the trough, too? Aren't our college kids as much of a natural resource as a soil bank?"

"There are some families who, no matter how much they scrimp and save, can't raise the money to send a smart kid to college. So the kid quits after high school, and every time that happens Uncle Sam loses $40,000 in future taxes. Is that good business?"

Well, is it?

BACKING FOR ROCKEFELLER FOUND IN N. H.

By RELMAN MORIN

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Undercurrents of sentiment for New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are still running in New Hampshire today.

How deep and strong they may be is difficult to gauge since Rockefeller is not a candidate in the state's primary election March 8. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is running unopposed on the Republican side of the ballot. However—

Declined Invitation

1. The organization formed for Rockefeller is still intact. It became inactive after he announced last Dec. 26 that he would not try for the GOP nomination for president. "We're keeping our powder dry and waiting to see what will happen," says State Rep. Robert S. Monahan, one of the original leaders of the pro-

Rockefeller movement.

2. They declined Gov. Wesley Powell's invitation to join the Nixon camp after Rockefeller's announcement in December.

3. Two men and a woman have filed for election as delegates "favorable" to Rockefeller. Another man is expected to enter the lists in the next few days. The four express varying degrees of optimism about their chances for election.

4. No movement to organize a write-in vote for Rockefeller has developed. However, it is generally expected that voters will inscribe his name on the presidential preference side of the ballot, known as the "beauty contest."

Hope For Groundswell

That's the big question. You hear of communities where pro-Rockefeller sentiment is reported still strong. However, observers do not believe the feeling extends over the state as a whole.

In short, the Rockefeller people remain hopeful that, somehow, a groundswell will get under way and sweep Rockefeller to the nomination. They also hope that if they keep singing the praises of the New York governor, it will increase his potential write-in vote.

The hope seems slim. Nixon's backers — 23 have filed for election as delegates favorable to him — include most of the GOP political powerhouses in New Hampshire and Nixon's name is formally on the ballot while Rockefeller's is not.

Some "Favorable"

Rockefeller's name will be listed under those of delegate candidates seeking election as "favorable" to him. Under state law, the candidates were able to file as "favorable" without the governor's sanction and he was powerless to prevent his name from appearing on the ballot in this fashion.

In the coming primary, Democrats and Republicans can only vote for candidates and delegates of their respective parties. The GOP vote is usually about 2½ times greater than the Democratic vote.

Discovery of what is true and practice of what is good are the most important objects of philosophy, wrote Voltaire, the French dramatist-reformer who died in 1778.

Flotilla 53, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Is Presented Trophies For Its Services

Blaine W. Hughes, of Guernsey, vice commander of Flotilla 53, United States Coast Guard Auxiliary of the Harrisburg area, received trophies awarded the unit at the recent seminar and Franklin Hotel, Philadelphia.

The presentations were made by Commodore Robert Evans, Commodore William Ross MacDonald, Third District Southern Area, the donor.

A silver cup is awarded each year to the flotilla in the district having the largest number of participants graduating from the eight lesson course, sponsored by the U.S.C.G.A. in its program to promote safe boating practices. The cup is inscribed as follows: "For outstanding service participation in public instruction for 1959." Many Adams Counties took the course under the direction of Hughes who was at that time training officer of the Flotilla.

Flotilla 53 also received a trophy to present to Charles E. Duffenderfer, of Highspire, for outstanding assistance to the U.S.C.G. by rendering aid to another boatman, thereby saving his life. The incident occurred at Hart Island, at the mouth of Back River, near Baltimore.

Several certificates for outstanding achievements were also awarded to the Harrisburg area group, for courtesy motorboat examinations.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary is a voluntary organization dedicated to the furtherance of safe boating. With the definite increase in this sport more boat-conscious men are joining the group. Dates for new study groups will be announced later.

Robert E. Miller is commander of the Flotilla and Aaron Solomon is the training officer.

TOKYO (AP)—Gas fumes seeping from a leaky main into a sleeping, heavily populated area of Tokyo killed two persons and overpowered nearly a hundred others early Wednesday.

RED CHINESE MAKE DEMANDS

TOKYO (AP)—Red China announced Wednesday a formal demand upon Indonesia for "the immediate ending of the forcible evacuation of overseas Chinese and other acts of persecution."

The demand, presented to Foreign Minister Subandrio in Jakarta by Chinese Ambassador Iliang Chen, in effect insisted that Indonesia stop the removal of Chinese businessmen from rural areas.

The official Peiping Peoples Daily said that this demand was one of several "to ensure smooth implementation" of the new Chinese-Indonesian treaty on dual nationality. The treaty permits the three million Chinese in Indonesia to choose between Indonesian and Chinese citizenship.

Indonesia has banned Chinese merchants from rural areas where they virtually monopolize trade and has been moving them into camps.

Use Music, Noise To Reduce Pain

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Music and the recorded roar of a waterfall have been used successfully to stop pain during dental treatment. Dr. Harold Wirth of New Orleans said at the Dallas Midwinter Dental Clinic Tuesday.

The machine was developed under the auspices of Tufts University after it had been discovered that workers in noisy industrial areas had suffered accidents without experiencing pain, indicating, Dr. Wirth said, that noise numbs portions of the brain recording pain.

Dental patients are fitted with tight-fitting earphones. Controls enable them to increase the volume as needed to knock out the pain.

Secretary Martin Says State Senate Bottled Up His Report

By HERB LINNEN

HARRISBURG (AP)—Highways Secretary Park H. Martin said today a report showing Pennsylvania would need more than three billion dollars for projects in the next 12 years was made available to two senators but they urged it be kept under wraps.

Martin said he made the report available early last year to Republican Sens. George N. Wade and Edward J. Kessler.

"They told me that if I were to release it I'd have every legislator on my back asking for more money for his particular area," said Martin. "They said this would make it difficult to get a gas tax increase approved," Martin told a newsman.

Denial From Wade

Wade, chairman of the Senate Highways Committee, said he recalled "seeing a typewritten report of spending estimates" but denied that he urged its suppression.

At Tuesday's hearing Wade had accused the Highways Department of not having a long-range program.

Kessler, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, said he could not recall the report but added it was possible he might have seen it and urged it be kept secret.

Bottled By Senate

"You can appreciate that if such a breakdown was made public it would lead to a lot of pressure from areas which may not have fared so well in getting money," he added.

The Senate bottled up the administration's request to raise the state gasoline tax from five to six cents a gallon.

Martin said he was seriously considering releasing the report anyway in the next several days. He declined to reveal its contents but said it gives an itemized account of all anticipated spending on highway projects, including key interstate roads.

Outgrowth Of Hearing

The controversy was an outgrowth of a two-day hearing called by Wade to look into criticisms by the U.S. comptroller general's office that the department was wasting money in administering the state's highway program.

Wade was asked afterward whether the thousands of words of testimony given by Martin and his staff helped clear the air. He replied:

"I think secretary Martin is a dedicated man who is trying to do the best possible job. However, I think in some instances he is surrounded by people who are too visionary. They want to do too much in a short period of time."

Code Called Archaic

Chairman Harry R. J. Comer (D-Phil.) of the House Highways Committee claimed the hearings showed the department was doing a good job and the comptroller general's report was unwarranted.

Wade and Comer agreed hereafter the department should outline to both the House and Senate Highways Committees its proposed legislation before it is introduced in the General Assembly.

"In this way we will have a better idea of what they are after," said Wade.

Their position was taken after John R. Rezzolla, chief highways counsel, said the state's highway code was archaic and needed revision. A revision bill was defeated in the House during the 1959 Legislature.

Martin was quick to back a proposal that half the money from fuel taxes now turned over to counties be given to the Highways Department for road construction. Rep. Albert E. Strausser (R-Columbia) said his proposal would provide an additional 15 million dollars a year for roads.

"I know of no county that would suffer," Strausser said. "The county commissioners could well afford to give it up."

Strausser pointed out that there are less than 800 miles of county-owned roads and bridges. He said only 14 counties have road mileage, and four counties have neither roads nor bridges.

"I hope you gentlemen paid attention to that," Martin told members of the House and Senate Highways Committee.

DIOR HANDS FASHIONS BIG 'JOLT' FOR 60

By NADEANE WALKER
PARIS (AP)—The house of Dior handed another surprise to the fashion world Wednesday.
Dresses displayed at the spring and summer show erased bust, waist and hips. Knees were covered but barely.
Said the Duchess of Windsor of the latest creation by young Yves St. Laurent, Dior's heir: "Oh, I think it's wonderful!"
But after being shapeless all day, Dior's women are supposed to get curvy, vampish bosoms, high small waists and sometimes even hip curves for the evening.
Loose-lined Formals
Actually most of the formals are loose-lined too.
Designer Saint Laurent calls it all "the silhouette of tomorrow." But there are echoes of yesterday, particularly of the trapeze line on which the young dressmaker swung daintily high on his debut two years ago.
The sack, tent and chemise are all there with a difference.
Basically the silhouette flares out roundly from bust to short hemline.
Applause Enthusiastic
Applause followed the models from early in the show, and grew in enthusiasm with the evening clothes.
There are short jackets, long jackets and tunic jackets. Necklines are collarless and scooped out. Suit sleeves are loose three-quarter tues, and most dresses are sleeveless. Gray and navy are the important daytime colors with orange tones and turquoise.
Mantequins wore tall beehive hats or pudding basins. The costume jewelry was heaped on with a heavy hand. Jeweled medallions as big as saucers perched on the bosom, often aured with slave bracelets worn above the elbow on each arm.
Typical suits have a loose jacket, loose skirt, and loose top. There are also suit dresses, with both dress and jacket unfitted. Tunic length tops are tucked under in an unpressed hem, or gathered in harem style. Coats are cut in a big curve over the hips and dip slightly at the hem. A few are sleeveless.
Mexico is made up of 20 states, two territories and a federal district — the equivalent of the District of Columbia in the U. S.

PENNA. BISON TO GET SECOND T-B CHECKUP

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — The 20 buffalo that roam the range on the 1,100-acre Trexler-Lehigh game preserve don't know it, but next week is a matter of life and death for them.
The bison will undergo their second test for tuberculosis in a 90-day period. The first check last November showed nine buffalo infected with TB—and they were promptly destroyed.
If any more buffalo are found suffering from the disease, gamekeeper Warren Wertman says the entire herd will be destroyed.
Would Get New Herd
The preserve then will wait about a year before obtaining a new herd of buffalo from the U. S. Wildlife Service.
It is the second time in six years the tuberculosis has struck the Trexler buffalo. And the cause has baffled veterinarians.
None of the other range animals on the preserve, established under the will of Gen. Harry C. Trexler, have been ill. These include elk, deer and palomino horses. Pen animals, among them water buffalo, also have been free of TB.
Various Theories
There have been various theories advanced as to the source of the tuberculosis that strikes at the buffalo.
Some believe that birds carry the germ while others say it is carried by foxes or other small animals that roam the preserve. Whatever the cause, veterinarians feel certain the disease is not transmitted to the buffalo by humans, pointing out the TB infection in man and animal is not similar.
There are those too, who feel "facilities on the preserve were not properly disinfected" and a herd was brought in several years ago.
Provided In Will
At that time all hay and straw was destroyed and the barn that houses the buffalo thoroughly cleaned.
If the present herd must be destroyed, it is believed that all wooden structures used for the buffalo would be destroyed and new ones erected before another herd is brought in.
Under Trexler's will buffalo must be exhibited on the preserve.

SOME SHADES OF LIPSTICK MAY BE DEAD

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the lipstick shades women use to prettify themselves may not be on the market after Feb. 1 unless Congress acts.
Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming, noting that Tuesday, asked Congress to change the law to permit continued use of some substances which give lipstick their color.
He told the House Commerce Committee Tuesday that laboratory tests have shown conclusively that there is no question of lipstick causing a cancer danger.
Can Cause Damage
But, he explained, experiments make clear that in large quantities some colors used in lipstick can cause liver and spleen damage in test animals.
As a result, he said, the government had no alternative under present law but to take action to bar 17 lipstick colors which tests showed could cause ailments in test animals.
It is open Sundays and holidays and is visited by some 50,000 persons each year.

Teen-ager Is Killed When Car Upsets

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A car overturned and crashed into a pole on Route 662 near here Tuesday night, killing one teen-ager and injuring five others.
Killed was Kenneth Nyman, 15, of Pottstown.
Sharon Spatz, 15, of Pottstown, was reported in satisfactory condition at Pottstown Hospital with a possible fractured left shoulder, cuts and bruises.
Treated for cuts and bruises and released were Gard Ormsbee, 17, of Pottstown; Barbara Wilkerson, 15, of Pottstown; Barry Eddinger, 17, of Douglassville R. 1, and Calvin Yost, 16, of South Pottstown.

Flemming was the first witness at a hearing on proposals to give the government board new authority to regulate use of food, drug and cosmetic additives.
Flemming renewed his appeal for extending to color additives the anti-cancer provision that now applies to food additives.
The provision bans food additives when tests show they can produce cancer when ingested by animals or humans.
He said the Food and Drug Administration presently is considering cosmetic industry requests for hearings on the lipstick ban.

PASTOR, WIFE ARE REUNITED

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—"The people of the congregation here, where I came only last May, were so anxious to see me happy and helped all they could to bring me and my wife together again."
Mano Engel, a 46-year-old Hungarian who fled his country in the uprising of 1956, expressed his gratitude Tuesday after bringing his wife home to Pottstown.
His wife, Dona, 43, arrived here after getting an immigration visa from the United States Monday in a ceremony in Montreal, Canada. He met her in New York and they drove home.
Because of immigration problems they had been separated for several months. After Engel fled Hungary, his wife later went to Canada.
Engel, who is cantor in the Mercy and Truth Jewish Synagogue here, said he asked his wife how she felt when she got off the train in New York.
"I feel that I now have a homeland where I can live in peace," he quoted her as saying.
The principality of Liechtenstein paid for its new post office building in Vaduz through a single day's sale of stamps.

Will Produce 70 Million Of Steel In Next 6 Months

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's steel mills should pour out about 70 million tons of steel in the first half of 1960, Roger Blough, chairman of United States Steel Corp., predicts.
Blough made the estimate at a news conference Tuesday after issuance of the company's report on 1959 operations. He cautioned he expected a slackening of production in the third quarter and made no forecast for the full year.
The nation's record steel production for one year was 117 million tons in 1957.
To questions on steel prices, Blough said he had nothing to add to previous comments. He has said U. S. Steel would make no immediate increase in steel prices as a result of the settlement with the United Steelworkers Union.
Blough placed considerable emphasis upon the possibility of changes in work practices, a key item in the steel contract negotiations.
The steel companies charged there was featherbedding or make-work practices in steel plants. The contract provided for a union management commission to study the situation.
"I'm very hopeful," Blough said, "that the attitude of the men at various locations in the mills be such that we will be able to make a lot of progress in work practices."
The steel executive predicted the company's operating rate would be between 90 and 95 percent of capacity in the first quarter and a little less in the second quarter. After that, he expected a downturn.
However, Blough added "I wouldn't anticipate too much of an adverse change in the second half of 1960."
The corporation reported net income of $253,975,686 or $4.24 a share for 1959 compared with $301,558,251 or $5.13 a share in 1958. In the last quarter net income was $20,162,326 or 44 cents a share compared with $90,728,989 or $1.57 a share in 1958.
Directors declared a dividend of 75 cents a share on the common stock, payable March 10 to stockholders of record Feb. 5 and $1.75 on the preferred payable Feb. 20 to stockholders of record Feb. 2.

TRIAL HINGES ON TESTIMONY OF PARAMOUR

By DIAL TORGERSON
LOS ANGELES (AP) — With this testimony the state's case would collapse like a house of cards.
A judge and a deputy district attorney once agreed to this—referring to Carol's testimony in the state's case against her lover, Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42. They are accused of murdering the July 18 shooting of the doctor's wife Barbara.
Carol's testimony is not admitted in the state's case against her lover, Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42. They are accused of murdering the July 18 shooting of the doctor's wife Barbara.

Motor Scooter Moves On 'Cushion'

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A motor scooter that moves at speeds up to 25 miles an hour on a cushion of air was unveiled Tuesday by Bell Helicopter Corp.
The scooter, weighing 160 pounds and looking something like a giant electric floor buffer, is powered by a two-cycle motor scooter engine which turns a big fan. The downward blast lifts the vehicle about two inches off the ground.

31 KOREANS ARE KILLED IN STAMPEDE

By K. C. HWANG
SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Thirty-one holiday-bound Koreans were killed and 50 injured Tuesday night in what one survivor called the "living hell" of a human stampede at the Seoul railway station.
Eleven of the victims were children under 10.
They either suffocated or were trampled to death when hundreds of ticket buyers dashed wildly to crowd into the last night train to Mokpo, piled up at the bottom of a steep railway.
Officials said one person apparently slipped on the snow-covered stairs starting a human avalanche.
Blames Officials
Transportation Minister Kim Il Hwan resigned today after eyewitnesses blamed station officials for the tragedy. The station master also was relieved of his duties. President Syngman Rhee ordered an investigation.
More than 3,000 tickets had been sold for the train's 16 coaches—more than twice the number of seats—and the station gates were opened only five minutes before departure time.
Sixteen of the dead were women. Most of them were servants en route to their home in Mokpo, a seaport in southwest Korea to celebrate the lunar calendar New Year, which falls Thursday.

"MAC" FETED ON BIRTHDAY

NEW YORK (AP) — General Douglas MacArthur received several moments of his long military service Tuesday night as gifts at a party celebrating his 80th birthday.
Legions of the Army, Navy and Air Force presented MacArthur. The silver command wings of "Dusty" Rhodes, MacArthur's wartime pilot, from Gen. Thomas White, Air Force chief of staff, a flag flown by the USS Nashville, MacArthur's command ship during much of the Pacific campaign from Adm. Thomas C. Kinkaid of the Navy.
And the office chair MacArthur used as Army chief of staff from Undersecretary of the Army Maj. Gen. Hugh Milton II.
Nearly 10,000 old friends including key members of his World War II staff attended the party at the Waldorf-Astoria. They sang "Happy Birthday" as MacArthur cut a red, white and blue cake.

Offer Long Study Of Water In York

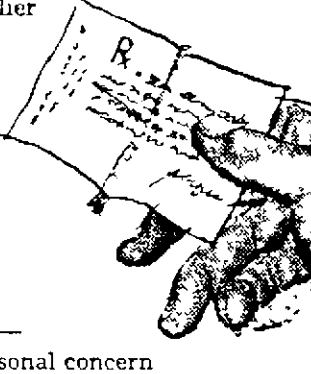

HARRISBURG (AP) — York County was offered state assistance Tuesday in a long-range study of water requirements.
The Forests and Waters Department would undertake the work. The county planning commission suggests the study cover a 50-year period to determine whether dams are needed on Codorus Creek and other streams. Possible use of Susquehanna River as additional source of water.
Use of recommended reservoirs in state parks.
A coordinated water development plan for the county's consideration would be the final result of such a study. The plan would include costs and construction time-tables.

DEATHS

WASHINGTON (AP) — John J. O'Connor, 74, a top congressional Democrat in the early years of the New Deal, died Tuesday.
O'Connor, who represented New York's 16th District in 1923-1937, broke with President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1957 after the President proposed adding more members to the Supreme Court and was defeated in the 1958 campaign. He was born in Raynham, Mass.
SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Ralph Ashley Horr, 78, Republican representative in Congress from Washington's 1st District from 1931 to 1933, died Tuesday after a long illness. He had been prominent in legal and political circles in Seattle for many years. He was born in Saybrook, Ill.
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Beno Gutenberg, 70, an authority on earthquakes, died Monday of pneumonia. He was director of the seismological laboratory at the California Institute of Technology from 1947 until his retirement two years ago. He had been with Caltech since 1930. He was born in Darmstadt, Germany.

Top Presidential Candidates Not Always As Frisky As Now

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — The six men currently regarded as top contenders for presidential nominations this year were not always as frisky as they appear today. The ills of the flesh have assailed in varying degrees all of those who figured prominently in a campaign likely to put a premium on physical stamina.

As the likely Republican nominee, Vice President Richard M. Nixon maintains that he has no worries on that score.

Nixon Watches Diet
But vigorous as he appears, Nixon at 47 is subject in times of stress to what he calls a nervous stomach. He also has a touch of hay fever now and then.

Because he has high blood pressure, Nixon watches his diet closely, particularly while campaigning.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), 42, an avowed candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, gives every evidence of having recovered from a spinal injury for which he underwent surgery in October 1954.

Kennedy Was Hurt
Kennedy was injured when the torpedo boat he commanded in World War II was hit by a Japanese destroyer.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), 48, another avowed candidate, has not had a serious illness since pneumonia almost took his life when he was 7 years old.

However, he has had two operations, one for a double hernia, and the other an appendectomy. Those who see Humphrey going at top speed on long-hour days have no fears about his health.

Johnson Had Coronary
Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who obviously is available for his party's top nomination, is the only one of the group who has had a recorded heart attack.

Johnson, now 51, was stricken at the home of a friend in Middleburg, Va., in July 1955 with what was described as a moderately severe heart attack. He had been operated on in March of that year for removal of a kidney stone.

None of his colleagues gives a thought these days to the Johnson heart attack. His dynamo has not slowed down and he seems in vigorous health.

Symington's Trouble
Like Nixon, Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) has been bothered in the past by high blood pressure. Symington, 58, is an unannounced candidate who says he would like to be president.

Symington's recovery from a March 1947 sympathectomy appears to have been complete. This is a delicate operation in which the sympathetic nerves to the spine are severed to relieve high blood pressure.

A golfer who often shoots in the 70s, Symington was back on the course three months after the operation. He says he feels fine physically and looks it.

Stevenson Had Surgery
Adlai E. Stevenson, who currently is avoiding being proposed as a potential nominee, has had kidney stone trouble, like Johnson.

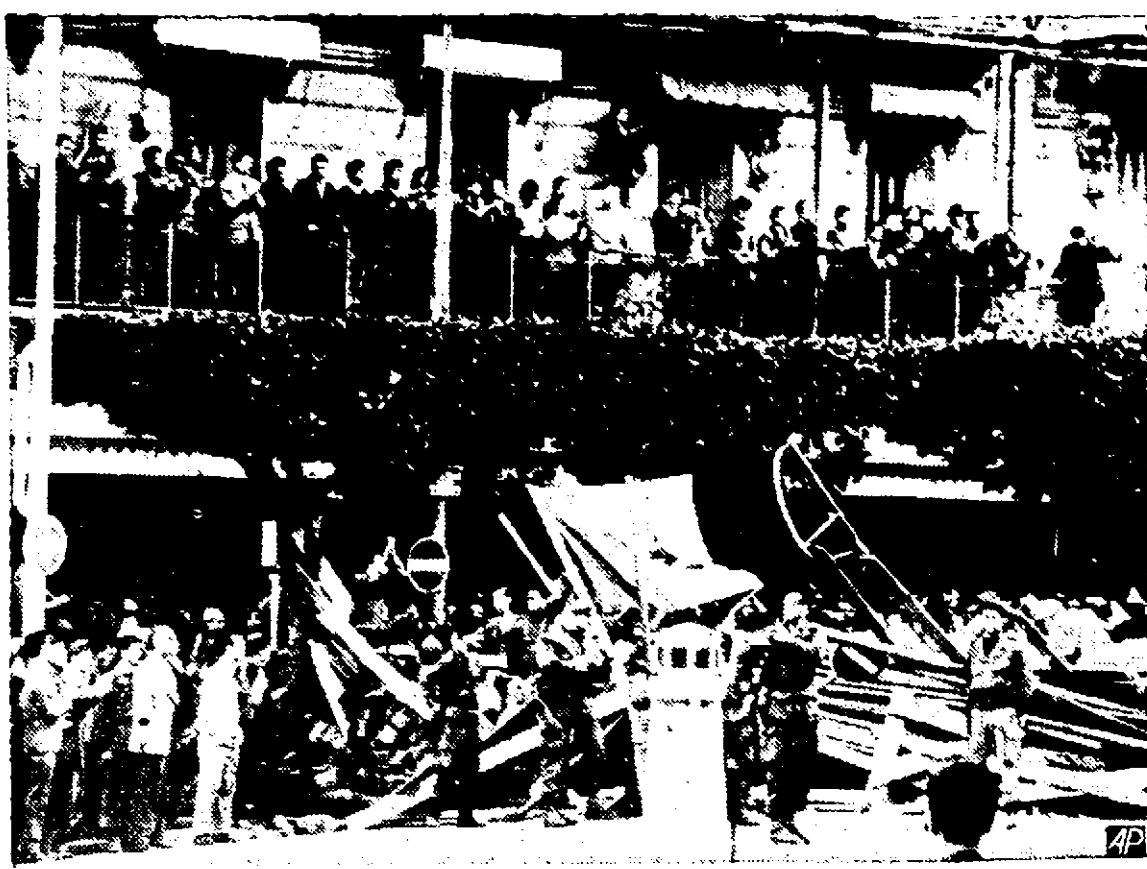

In June 1952 shortly before he was nominated for president by the Democrats the first time, Stevenson underwent an operation for removal of kidney stones. He had a similar operation in April 1954.

However, Stevenson's doctors annually pronounce him in good health. He is now 60 and the pace he maintains indicates he has few worries on that score.

SUZY PARKER HAS RETIRED AS TOP MODEL

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

What is it liked to be the world's highest paid model?

"You could never imagine," says tall, languid, red-haired Suzy Parker, whose minimum fee was $150 an hour before she quit modeling for marriage, motherhood and the movies. "You begin to feel that you're not real at all. You're the creature who smokes all those cigarettes, uses all that lipstick, wears all those strange fashions, drives those cars, hypnotizes men with all that perfume, lies on that leopard rug with a cake of soap."

"You see your face staring at you from every magazine and sometimes, big as the side of a house, from billboards. You wonder if you're really a person, or only a symbol. So you have to fall in love to prove you're human."

Retired Now
That's Suzy whose pictures have helped to sell American woman 140 billion dollars worth of glamour goods in the last 10 years. Now that she has retired from modeling, Suzy is starring in a hilarious lampoon of all the wild, weird advertisements for which she posed in the Fabulous 50s, in a TV special of the same title Sunday night, Jan. 31.

Suzy was born in Texas, raised in Florida and now lives in Paris, with her writer husband, Pierre de la Salle, and her month-old daughter, Georgia. She made a flying trip to New York to do the TV satire.

Won't Live in Hollywood
"One thing is sure," says Suzy. "My husband and my baby are not going to be involved in my business life."

"When I get a call to go to Hollywood to do a movie, I'll take the baby along, if it's going to take more than a couple of weeks. But one thing I refuse to do, and that is to live in Hollywood. I intend to live in Paris, because that's where my husband works. And it's easy these days to commute anywhere in the world by jet."

ASK RUTGERS STUDENTS TO HELP POLICE

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — Authorities appealed today to Rutgers University students for help in finding "a maniac with a grudge" who killed four persons at a doctor's home.

Middlesex County Prosecutor Warren T. Wilentz, chief investigating officer, said an unnamed informant had seen the killer after the murder talking to two or three young men thought to be students at Rutgers, in nearby New Brunswick.

The slayer may have been asking directions in his getaway from the country estate where he bound and shot Edith Clarke, the invalid wife of a prominent surgeon, two women servants and the taxi driver who had brought him there.

"I haven't ruled out the possibility of a professional killer,"

RENEW PLEAS FOR FEDERAL ROAD WORK

HARRISBURG (AP) — Renewed pleas for early construction of proposed federal interstate highways projects in Pennsylvania have been made by influential civic leaders in three areas.

Using a joint House-Senate hearing on state highways operations as a sounding board, the spokesmen Wednesday called for the new roads as soon as possible to bolster the economy of depressed areas and to open other areas of the state to commerce.

Robert S. Bates, Meadville Tribune publisher and president of the Erie-Pittsburgh-West Virginia Freeway Assn., urged speedy construction of all portions of Pennsylvania's share of the federal highway program.

Push Area Roads
"If additional funds are needed, the association pleads with the Legislature to provide them," he said. "Not only does the association support the imposition of taxes where needed to finance the highway construction program, but it urges any . . . new legislation which would strengthen the operation of the (State) Highways Department. . . ."

Bates said a four-lane, limited-access expressway from Erie to Pittsburgh and the West Virginia line would benefit the entire state as well as residents of the 10 western Pennsylvania counties it would traverse.

Johnstown Area Too
Bernard B. Blier of Scranton, executive director of the Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Commission, pushed for construction of the Anthracite Expressway, the Keystone Shortway and the Penn Can Highway.

"The roads, he said, would insure full employment in northeastern Pennsylvania and other distressed areas."

"The ability to attract and absorb its share of industry now starting a westward march out of metropolitan New York and New

Writing Of Sunday School Hymns Urged

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Baptist Sunday School Board is sponsoring a six-month competition to stimulate creative hymn writing among Southern Baptists. Manuscripts of original hymns will be accepted between April 1 and Sept. 30 by the board's Church Music Department. The winner will receive a prize of $200.

Jersey is dependent on how soon the highway program is completed," Blier added.

Representatives of Somerset County and the greater Johnstown area called for a new North-South road through the West-Central portion of the state.

STEEL STRIKE INJUNCTION IS DISSOLVED

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — The historic Taft-Hartley court injunction that ended the 116-day nationwide steel strike last Nov. 7 is now a thing of the past.

Judge Herbert P. Sorg of U.S. Dist. Court dissolved the order Tuesday. Unlike the excitement when he issued the injunction last fall, Tuesday's court proceedings hardly caused a ripple in the Federal Building.

Most of the nation's 500,000 basic steelworkers have been at work under new contracts since early this month.

15,000 Not Covered

There remain only about 15,000 United Steelworkers still not covered by new contracts. These workers, employed by smaller companies were free to resume the strike at midnight.

In Pittsburgh, the U.S.W. international office said it knew of no immediate plans to renew the strike against any of the unsigned companies.

The union already has agreed to a contract extension with Pittsburgh Steel Co., the largest of the unsigned companies.

However, pickets blocked entrances to three Detroit-area plants of McLouth Steel Corp., and workers did not report for the midnight turn. Some violence was reported.

EX-CONVICT WON'T TALK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bespectacled, middle-aged man questioned about the slaying of 10-year-old Mary Lou Olson says:

"I've served time previously for talking too much. I'm not going to make the same mistake again."

Ogden Paul Cooper, 51, twice convicted of sex offense against children, was arraigned Tuesday on a child molestation charge involving a 12-year-old boy. He is being held in lieu of $52,000 bail.

Cooper refused to answer questions about the Olson girl, whose body was found Jan. 12 near Tijuana, Mex., across the border from her home in National City, Calif. Officers said she had been sexually abused.

Cooper was arrested Sunday night while driving in downtown Los Angeles with the boy he is accused of molesting. Police said they found a pair of girl's cotton panties in Cooper's truck.

Injured Guard May Get $2,000

HARRISBURG (AP) — A guard at the Huntingdon Correctional Institution would be compensated $2,000 by the state under a new House bill for head injuries inflicted by two inmates.

The appropriation for George Luce was written Tuesday into a measure making changes in the administration's 1959-61 budget.

The 1959 Legislature authorized state reimbursement for medical and other expenses to injured state employees by Luce was beaten with a hammer before the effective date of the act, Dec. 8.

Dostoyevsky, noted Russian novelist, also was a Siberian exile.

Says Delinquency Needs U. S. Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) floor manager of a bill passed by the Senate to combat juvenile delinquency, says "the time has come to deal with it nationally."

Clark asserted Tuesday after passage by voice vote that the problem of juvenile delinquency has been increasing steadily for 10 years and exists in rural areas as well as in big cities.

The measure, which now goes to the House, authorizes the government to spend five million dollars a year for five years. Half of the money would be for demonstration projects and half for training personnel.

GRAHAM GOES TO NIGERIA

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Billy Graham took his African crusade to Nigeria Wednesday.

A meeting Tuesday night in Kumasi, 125 miles northwest of Accra, completed the evangelist's Ghana visit during which he persuaded more than 3,000 Africans to make "decisions for Christ."

Before flying to Kumasi Graham met with Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah.

Graham said the Ghanaian leader, often described by his newspapers as Africa's savior, told him he wants complete religious freedom for his people.

The Prime Minister expressed disappointment that he was unable to attend one of Graham's meetings.

Accra's press, including Nkrumah's papers, criticized the evangelist's silence on the planned French atomic tests in the Sahara.

ASK STATE STUDY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Four House Democrats have introduced a second resolution calling for a study of laws pertaining to sex offenders.

The measure introduced Tuesday followed one submitted a day earlier in the Senate.

The house bill suggests the study be made by the Joint State Government Commission.

Beat Down Move To Publish Lists

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Democrats Tuesday beat down a proposal to make public lists of persons paid for helping the state collect unclaimed money.

Rep. Maurice H. Goldstein (R-

TO TRY FOUR IN MINE DISASTER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Four men charged with involuntary manslaughter in the Port Griffith mine disaster will be tried in Northampton County Court at a date to be set later.

The trial had been scheduled to come up in Luzerne County Court the week of Feb. 15 but the State Supreme Court Tuesday approved a petition for a change of venue.

The four men are Fritz Renner, Clarks Summit, chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Coal Co.; Ralph A. Fries, Moscow, district engineer for Pennsylvania; Robert L. Dougherty, Wyoming, former president of the Knox Coal Co.; and Louis Fabrizio, Yatesville, president of Knox.

They claimed they could not receive a fair trial in Luzerne County. Luzerne County judges, sitting en banc, turned them down.

The Pennsylvania Coal Co. leased its River Slope Mine to the Knox firm. On Jan. 22, 1959, the swollen Susquehanna River burst into the mine, trapping 12 miners.

Allegheny, who submitted the plan, said it would prevent "political fat-cats" from draining off the fees.

Goldstein's proposal, defeated 94-89, was offered as an amendment to a bill authorizing the state to pay a fee up to 25 per cent to persons who supply information or help collect unclaimed money, which the state is entitled to under the escheat process.

Woman, 69, In Swim After Instructions

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — They all laughed when Alice plunged, because Alice was 69 and she had never plunged before.

Mrs. Alice Waldrop said, "My children, grandchildren and friends all laughed when I told them I intended to take swimming lessons. So, I just had to prove that I could learn."

And she did, completing a six-week swimming class at the Birmingham YWCA.

First Time Not only was it the first time she had ever been in the swim, it was the first time she had ever owned a bathing suit. And she learned to dive, too.

How far can she swim? "Not very far. If I'm going anywhere, it's usually by sheer determination if I get there."

Was it hard to learn to swim?

For Mrs. Waldrop, apparently not. It wasn't hard to learn to float either. But what was hardest for Mrs. Waldrop was to quit floating.

Presents Problem "I just couldn't figure out how

CAR HITS TRUCK AND TWO DIE

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Two persons were killed and three members of the same family were hurt Tuesday night when their car smashed into the back of a slag truck on an access road to the Fairless Works of U. S. Steel here.

Dead were Charles Hartman Sr., 48, a steelworker, of Trenton, N. J., and his mother, Mrs. Louise Hartman, 67, of Trenton.

Hartman was driving. In the car

I was going to get my feet down," she says.

Mrs. Waldrop is the mother of three and has 12 grandchildren.

"I may drown, but I certainly have enjoyed learning how to swim and how to conquer my fear of the water," she boasts.

with him were his wife Agnes, 50, their son, Charles Jr., 28, and daughter, Patricia, 11. They were admitted to Lower Bucks County Hospital, with only the son in serious condition.

Hartman's car smashed into the big dump rig, which was stopped, as truckdriver Arthur F. Nitach, 53, of Langhorne was about to dump 23 tons of slag on the road-way.
